

You know the broadcasters will eventually have the broadcast bit turned on for all shows. You are taking away our ability to receive analog broadcasts and now the 'better' replacement will not allow us to do basic things like record it for later playback or save it in a personal library. Given that choice I would like to stick with analog TV.